

Fact Sheet: Prevalence of Sexual Assault

AFFECTING TASMANIANS OVERALL

40,000

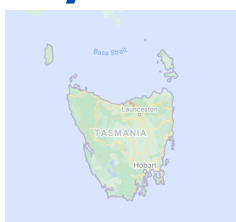

Adults estimated to have experienced sexual assault since age 15

28,000

Adults estimated to have experienced sexual abuse in their childhood

4,000

Adults estimated to have experienced sexual assault in the previous 12 months

There is currently no reliable method of determining prevalence rate among children

Fact Sheet: Prevalence of Sexual Assault

AFFECTING TASMANIANS WITH DISABILITY

Sexual assault of people with disability is estimated to be at least twice the national average. There is no comprehensive method of determining the actual rate of sexual assault.

5,400

Adults with disability estimated to have experienced sexual assault in their childhood

21,099

Adults with disability estimated to have experienced sexual assault since age 15

1,040

Adults with disability estimated to have experienced sexual assault in previous 12 months

There is currently no reliable method of determining prevalence rate among children with disability

